Part 1: A Crisis for the Disabled

It has been decades since the state closed notorious institutions that warehoused people with disabilities. We have yet to adjust to the fallout.

Dec. 3, 2017
By RONNIE POLANECZKY

Part 2: Finding Good Help

For adults with disabilities and their families, getting a Medicaid waiver to pay for daily care is like winning the lottery.

Dec. 4, 2017
By RONNIE POLANECZKY
Part 3: Finding Work

“You can’t talk about community integration without talking about employment,” says an advocate for adults with disabilities.

Dec. 5, 2017
By RONNIE POLANECZKY

Part 4: Life after death

For disabled adults who require constant care, the death of a parent can throw their lives into chaos.

Dec. 6, 2017
By RONNIE POLANECZKY

---

Judges’ Philly.com login credentials

login: pmncontests@gmail.com
password (case sensitive): Philly123